FACTS

9. On September 25, 2008, Leeward, as contractor, and the AUA, as owner, executed a contract for the construction of a medical school in St. Johns, Antigua.

10. The General Conditions to the Contract contain an arbitration clause that reads as follows:

§ 4.6 ARBITRATION

§ 4.6.1 Any Claim arising out of or related to the Contract, except Claims relating to aesthetic effect and except those waived as provided for in Sections 4.3.10, 9.10.4 and 9.10.5, shall, after decision by the Architect or 30 days after submission of the Claim to the Architect, be subject to arbitration.

§ 4.6.2 Claims shall be decided by arbitration which, unless the parties mutually agree otherwise, shall be in accordance with the Construction Industry Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association currently in effect. The demand for arbitration shall be filed in writing with the other party to the Contract and with the American Arbitration Association, and a copy shall be filed with the Architect. Location of any Arbitration will be Antigua.

11. On February 3, 2011, Leeward commenced an arbitration proceeding against the AUA with the American Arbitration Association International Center for Dispute Resolution (“AAA”) to arbitrate claims arising out of or related to the Contract.

12. Although the Arbitration Agreement provides for the location of the arbitration to take place in Antigua, the parties stipulated and agreed to conduct the arbitration in Puerto Rico.

14. The arbitration hearing at the Courtyard Marriott in Isla Verde, Puerto Rico took place from March 5, 2012 through March 9, 2012 and the arbitrators declared the hearing closed and the case submitted for resolution on May 22, 2012.

15. By Final Award certified June 22, 2012 and modified on August 8, 2012, the Arbitrators directed the AUA to pay damages to Leeward with interest at the rate of seven percent (7%) per annum as follows (Exhibit B, pp. 31-32):
